29th SUNDAY (B) OCTOBER 18, 2015

Isaiah 53: 10-11 Psalm 33 Hebrews 4: 14-16 Mark 10: 35-45

From today's Hebrews reading:

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin.

Reflection by Fr. Jude Siciliano, O.P.:

Hebrews reminds us that the One who has shared our human lot of suffering and temptation is now enthroned in the heavenly realm. But his position "on high" does not make him unapproachable and above our struggles. Thus, when we approach Christ in prayer we can expect mercy and a sympathetic hearing from his "throne of grace."

So we ask ourselves:

- Do we expect mercy from Christ each time we ask for it?
- Then, how does that mercy show itself in how we treat others?
