2nd Sunday of Lent (A) March 8, 2020

Genesis 12: 1-4a; Psalm 33; 2 Timothy 1: 8b-10; Matthew 17: 1-9

From today's Gospel:

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.... Behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

Reflection by Jude Siciliano, OP:

What the voice said at Jesus' baptism ("This is my beloved son, with whom I am well pleased....") is repeated on the mountain, "This is my beloved Son. My favor rests on him." But at the Transfiguration we also hear, "...listen to him." During Lent we might resolve to be better listeners. To observe a kind of silence before we speak so as to listen better to those who speak to us in: informal conversations, classes, political speeches, Sunday preachings, etc. For as the poet Gerard Manley Hopkins says, "for Christ plays in ten thousand places, Lovely in limbs, and lovely in eyes not his" It's not too late to make a Lenten resolution, to be attentive listeners to Christ who speaks to us in "ten thousand places."

So we ask ourselves:

- † How can I practice a little more silence this Lent?
- † Where can I go to hear Christ speak to me?
- † What friend or relative always speaks the truth to me?

MARCH 8 + 2020 + LENT II + ORDER OF MASS

Welcome to our worship! Parts of the Liturgy sung by ALL are capitalized:
Hymn numbers refer to our white Hymnal; page numbers to purple Missalette.
Some changes in the Liturgy reflect the more solemn nature of Lent:
the joyful Gloria is omitted, and the word "Alleluia" is removed from our lips.
