HYMN

DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME

Remembrance

Lord, we gather round your table, first to hear your holy Word;
Then partake with one another of the eucharistic food.
Do this in remembrance of me; do this in remembrance of me.

Jesus told the twelve apostles: I will give you living bread.
Take and eat, this is my body. Then he turned to them and said:
Do this in remembrance of me. Do this in remembrance of me.

Text and music: L. Fortunate

Greeting

SPRINKLING RITE - All echo each phrase after Cantor:

Vidi Aquam/Ward

I saw water flowing - from the right side of the temple -
The water brought God's life - and God's salvation -
And the people sang in praise - Alleluia!

Collect

~ Liturgy of the Word ~

First Reading

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16

Moses said to the people: "Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD. "Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 147/French

Second Reading

I Corinthians 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

SEQUENCE HYMN (seated) PRAISE, O ZION (7, 8)

tune: St. Thomas

Bread of angels, for God's children, pilgrim's strength along the way;
God provides in love, as always, Holy Manna ev'ry day.
Christ, as Isaac on the altar, still our debt to God will pay.

Living Bread, Good Shepherd, feed us, endless mercy offering.
With your hallowed saints unite us, to your heav'nly banquet bring;
there will we, forever feasting, "Amen! Alleluia" sing!

GOSPEL ALLELUIA (stand and sing after Cantor)

Holy Gospel

John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

O LIVING BREAD FROM HEAVEN

tune: Aurelia

O living bread from heaven, how you have fed your guest!
The gifts you now have given have filled my heart with rest.
O wondrous food of blessing, O cup that heals our woes,
My heart, this gift possessing, in thankful song o'er-flows!
My Lord, you here have led me within your holiest place,
And here yourself have fed me with treasures of your grace;
And you have freely given what earth could never buy,
The bread of life from heaven, that now I shall not die.

After the Hymn: Ushers will direct worshippers to leave, starting from the back of church. As you exit, please take personal items and Bulletins/service sheets with you. You may deposit paper copies in the receptacles near the door. Please do not linger on in front of church to maintain safe distancing.
